

CURRICULUM

VIA NOVUS UNIVERSITY

MASTER'S DEGREE IN SOCIAL COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

GENERAL TARGETS OF THE CURRICULUM

Train human resources to develop evaluation activities, diagnosis and design to achieve and implement through intervention programs and projects aimed at the prevention of urban problems that affect the improvement of the quality of life and social welfare for social and community development.

GRADUATE PROFILE

Being able to analyze from a theoretical and methodological perspective the social intervention models.

Will be able to: Design and assess programs and social development models and taking into consideration a committed participation and respect for human rights and social actors in social development and their application to improve their community.

They will have the ability to: Plan, operate, monitor and evaluate programs and social and community development models, taking into account the protection and improvement of priority groups and vulnerable social sectors.

Will have the necessary knowledge to detect, diagnose, prevent and predict community problems with the participation of those affected to identify and explain the variables and indicators in conflict and achieve alternatives for its solution either individual, group and social manner.

In the training area they will have attitudes and values such as service ethics and social responsibility, respect for cultural diversity and intervention to improve the quality of life.

LIST OF ASSIGNMENTS OR LEARNING UNITS	CODE	CREDITS
1. Introduction to Social Studies	ISS	4
2. Community Diagnosis and its Application	CDA	4
3. Social and Family Development	SFD	5
4. Regional and Microhistory Development	RMD	4
5. Urban and Social Dynamic Processes	USDP	5
6. Sexuality and Human Development	SHD	5
7. Conflicts Resolution and Communication	CRC	5
8. Study Methods in the Community	SMC	5
9. Urban Tensions and Social Intervention	UTSI	4
10. Projects and Academic Products	APP	5
	TOTAL CREDITS	46